

A Comprehensive Advanced Strabismus Symposium

During the day some of the topics we will discuss:

Complicated strabismus, which will comprise combined horizontal and vertical deviations

Brain changes with abnormal visual development

Emmetropisation and refraction: new concepts

Comprehensive management of thyroid eye disease

Recent developments in amblyopia assessment and therapy

Strabismus associated with other ocular and brain pathology

Application of Botulinum toxin and Bupivacaine in strabismus.

Uncommon surgical procedures

Learn today....make a difference

eyelearn effective courses in Ophthalmology www.eyelearn.org.uk

Advanced Strabismus Symposium

Saturday 8th of June 2013

Venue: The Conference Centre at LACE – Liverpool UK

Organiser: Mr Arvind Chandna – Consultant Paediatric Ophthalmologist

This one-day course is conducted in an informal symposium style and will be suitable for trainees in ophthalmology who have completed the Fundamental Skills course; Fellows in paediatric ophthalmology and/or strabismus at the end of their fellowship period; orthoptists, optometrists, paediatric ophthalmologists and strabismologists.

Eyelearn is a teaching and learning organisation in Ophthalmology founded on the best principles of education: teaching, training and instruction in active partnership with learners. Eyelearn has a special emphasis on Paediatric Ophthalmology.

Book Now (Limited places)

COURSE FEES

£175 for Ophthalmologists £125 for Orthoptists/Optometrists

Payment includes pre course materials, post course support for 4 weeks , refreshments and lunch

Apply by: Friday 24th of May 2013

Application forms available on www.eyelearn.org.uk or email for form at ask@eyelearn.org.uk