

A comprehensive course for Nurses

During the 2 days topics and practical demonstrations will include:

Vision and Visual Development

Assessment of Vision in children under three years of age, in children above three years of age, in severe visual impairment and cerebral visual impairment

Assessment of other visual functions

Colour vision, Contrast sensitivity, Depth perception, Common Eye Conditions, Blepharitis, Conjunctivitis, Conjunctivitis in new-born, Droopy eye lid, Eyelid cysts: vision threatening, Watering eye, Assessment of squint, Poor vision in a baby, Absent red reflex, Spectacle correction

Common Eye Emergencies

Painful red eye, Painless red eye, Photophobia, Corneal foreign body, Perforating eye injury, Floaters and flashing lights, Sudden loss of vision, Gradual loss of vision, Neuro-ophthalmologic conditions, Diplopia

Eye Medications

Antibiotics, Antivirals, Antihistamines, Glaucoma medication, Steroid eye drops, Local anaesthetics

Learn today....make a difference tomorrow

OPHTHALMOLOGY FOR NURSES 2 DAY PRACTICAL COURSE

Friday 14th and Saturday 15th of June 2013

Venue: The Conference Centre at LACE – Liverpool

Course Organiser: Mr Arvind Chandna – Consultant Paediatric Ophthalmologist

This two day course is aimed at Nurse Specialists, Nurse Practitioners, GP Nurses, A&E Nurses, School Nurses, Walk-in Centres

The course will comprise sessions covering a wide range of topics to enable the practitioner to manage common eye problems on prioritise referrals.

Didactic lectures, small group transfer of skills sessions and an interactive question and answers sessions will provide a comprehensive course.

Eyelearn is a teaching and learning organisation in Ophthalmology founded on the best principles of education: teaching, training and instruction in active partnership with learners. Eyelearn has a special emphasis on Paediatric Ophthalmology.

Book Now (Limited places)

COURSE FEES

£300

Payment includes pre course-material, post course support for 4 weeks, refreshments and lunch

Apply by: Friday 31st of May 2013

Apply by downloading application form at www.eyelearn.org.uk

or email for form at ask@eyelearn.org.uk